STUDENTS' INDUCTION PROGRAM

The Students' Induction programmes were held in each year before the commencement of the classes for 1st semester. The main objective of the programme is to provide a comprehensive orientation to new students, introducing them to the college community, facilities, and resources.

The Program Highlights are as follows:

- Welcome address by the Principal
- Focus on the history of the Suri Vidyasagar College, its mission and vision
- Academic program overview and expectations
- Highlighting do's and don'ts for students
- Highlighting the institute as a "ragging free" institution and legal implications of violation
- Informing about "Vishaka" guidelines
- Doubt clearing and Question and Answer session

Key Takeaways:

- Students gained a better understanding of college policies and procedures
- Students felt more comfortable navigating the campus and accessing resources
- Students gained valuable insights into academic and extracurricular.

Conclusion:

The induction program successfully welcomed new students to the college community, providing a supportive and inclusive environment for them to thrive.

Departments also organized Library Induction programme for the new admitted students to introduce them with our academically rich Library.

During Covid Period, the central Induction program could not be held, but the departments organized online induction programme for the new admitted students'.
