NSS ACTIVITIES, 2019-2020

Voluntary Blood Donation Camp (17.04.2019)

The units of National Service Scheme of Suri Vidyasagar College organized a voluntary blood donation camp, in collaboration with a local blood bank. The event aimed to promote voluntary blood donation and meet the blood requirements of patients in need.

Over 100 students and faculty members voluntarily registered to donate blood, out of which 75 donations were successfully collected. The blood donation process was carried out by a team of medical professionals, ensuring a safe and hygienic environment for the donors.

The NSS volunteers actively participated in organizing the event, from publicity to coordination, and also donated blood themselves. The camp was inaugurated by the Principal, who appreciated the efforts of the NSS unit and encouraged the donors.

The event was a resounding success, with a significant number of units of blood collected. The blood bank officials expressed their gratitude to the college and the NSS unit for their support. The voluntary blood donation camp fostered a sense of social responsibility and community service among the students and staff.

Observation of Independence Day (15.08.2019)

On 15th August, NSS & NCC units of Suri Vidyasagar College celebrated India's Independence Day with patriotic fervour and enthusiasm. The day began with a flag-hoisting ceremony, where the national flag was unfurled by the Principal, followed by the national anthem. Students and faculty members gathered at the campus grounds to pay tribute to the nation's freedom fighters. The program included inspiring speeches, poetry recitals, and songs that highlighted India's struggle for independence and its rich cultural heritage. NCC cadets also presented a parade, marching in unison, holding flags and banners, and displaying their patriotic spirit. Then the cadets and volunteers made a rally a walked through some near-by street.

The event concluded with a message from the Principal, emphasizing the importance of upholding the values of freedom, equality, and justice, and encouraging students to become responsible citizens and contribute to the nation's progress. The celebration ended with the distribution of sweets, filling the campus with joy and patriotism.

Observation of Rakshabandhan (15.08.19)

The units of National Service Scheme of Suri Vidyasagar College observed Rakshabandhan, a festival celebrating the bond among the people of our society. The NSS volunteers organized a series of events to mark the occasion, both within the campus and in nearby areas. In the campus, the volunteers tied rakhis on the wrists of their friends, faculty members and other staff of our college, symbolizing protection and solidarity. They also presented and tied handmade rakhis. In the nearby areas, the NSS volunteers visited orphanages and rural communities, tying rakhis on the wrists of the residents.

The event aimed to promote unity, brotherhood, and social responsibility among the students and the community. The NSS volunteers demonstrated their commitment to serving society, fostering a sense of togetherness and harmony. The observation of Rakshabandhan was a resounding success, strengthening the bond between the college and the community.

Tree Plantation and Presentation Programme (21.08.2019)

On 21st August, 2019, the units of National Service Scheme of Suri Vidyasagar College organized a tree plantation and presentation program, aiming to promote environmental awareness and conservation. The event began with a tree plantation drive, where NSS volunteers planted over 10 saplings in the college campus. The students were encouraged to adopt a tree and nurture it throughout the year.

Following the plantation drive, a presentation program was held, where over 40 saplings were given as presentation to different teachers, non-teaching staff and students. Then an expert spoke on the importance of tree plantation, environmental conservation, and sustainable development.

The Principal and faculty members appreciated the efforts of the NSS volunteers, acknowledging their commitment to environmental conservation. The event concluded with a pledge to protect the environment and promote sustainability. The tree plantation and presentation program was a resounding success, inspiring the students to become responsible citizens.

Observation of Teachers' Day (05.09.2019)

The volunteers of National Service Scheme of Suri Vidyasagar College observed Teachers' Day, honoring the dedication and contributions of Dr. Sarvapally Radhakrishnan and our esteemed faculty members.

The event began with a floral tribute to Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, the former President of India and a renowned teacher. The NSS volunteers presented a cultural program, featuring songs, dances, showcasing the importance of teachers in shaping students' lives. The volunteers also organized a felicitation ceremony, where they expressed gratitude for their guidance and support. The teachers were overwhelmed with emotion, appreciating the gesture and acknowledging the efforts of the NSS volunteers.

The program concluded with a speech by the Principal, emphasizing the significance of the teacher-student relationship and encouraging the students to respect and appreciate their teachers' efforts. The event was a heart-warming tribute to the teaching fraternity, strengthening the bond between teachers and students on campus.

Observation of NSS Day and Tran Distribution (24.09.19)

On 24th September, 2019, the National Service Scheme of Suri Vidyasagar College observed NSS Day, commemorating the establishment of the scheme. To mark the occasion, the NSS volunteers organized a food and clothes distribution program among the poor and needy of nearby areas.

The program began with a brief ceremony, where the NSS volunteers took an oath to continue serving the society. Later, they distributed foods and clothes to five needy people, including two elderly people and a child. The NSS volunteers also interacted with the beneficiaries, listening to their problems and offering support.

The program concluded with a sense of fulfillment and social responsibility among the NSS volunteers, reaffirming their commitment to serving the community. The event was a testament to the NSS motto of "Not Me, But You," and the college's dedication to fostering social responsibility among its students.

Observation of Netaji Jayanti (23.01.2020)

NSS of Suri Vidyasagar College observed the birthday of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose with great enthusiasm and respect. The day began with a special assembly, where students and faculty members gathered to pay tribute to the legendary freedom fighter.

The program commenced with flag hoisting and floral tribute to Netaji's portrait, followed by inspiring speeches and songs that highlighted his bravery, sacrifice, and vision for a free India. Students presented some performances on his life and struggles, emphasizing his role in India's independence movement.

The observance of Netaji Jayanti in our college campus was a thoughtful and enriching experience, inspiring students to make a better society.

Two Day Awareness Programme on HIV-AIDS (04.03.2020-05.03.2020)

NSS units of Suri Vidyasagar College organized a two day awareness program on HIV-AIDS, to aware students and local people about the reasons, risks and consequences of the disease. The program aimed to dispel myths and stigmas surrounding HIV-AIDS and promote awareness and prevention. The event featured a series of interactive sessions, including lectures, discussions, and quizzes, conducted by medical experts and counsellors. Students were informed about the causes, symptoms, and treatment options for HIV-AIDS. The volunteers organized a rally to spread awareness about HIV-AIDS among the local people. They performed a street drama to make aware them.

The awareness program was well-received by the students, and it helped to create a supportive and inclusive environment, encouraging open discussions and reducing stigma around HIV-AIDS. The event was a step towards promoting healthy habits and responsible behaviour among the youth.

Three month Karate Training for Girls' 2nd Phase (Jan-Mar, 2020)

The units of National Service Scheme of Suri Vidyasagar College in collaboration with Suri Women Police Station and Karate Academy, organized 2nd phase three-months karate training program for girl students. The program aimed to empower girls with self-defense skills and boost their confidence.

Twenty no. of girl students enrolled in the program, which consisted of one class per week. The training was conducted by experienced karate instructor Mr. Sekhar Chatterjee of Suri Karate Academy.

The program covered various aspects of karate, including basic techniques, self-defense strategies, and physical fitness. The girls showed tremendous enthusiasm and dedication, learning new skills and techniques. The program culminated with a certificate distribution ceremony, where the girls demonstrated their newly acquired skills. The Principal of Suri Vidyasagar College, police officials of Suri Women Police Station, and karate instructors appreciated the girls' hard work and encouraged them to continue practicing karate.

The program was a resounding success, fostering a sense of empowerment and confidence among the girl students. The NSS units, Suri Women Police Station and Karate Academy planned to continue this initiative, promoting self-defense training for girls in the future.
