Suri Vidyasagar College is committed to adhere the highest standard of academic rigor for the students. The College provides a congenial learning environment in its lush green sprawling campus with adequate infrastructural facilities. Dedicated teachers with their knowledge, experiences and professional expertise are engaged in shaping the students with multiple skills. Keeping in view the importance of sports for health and fitness, the institution encourages participation of students in various games, events, and field activities. Physical recreation through games and sports has been the priority of the College since its inception. The spacious ground of the College is being used for playing cricket, football, Kho-Kho, volleyball, badminton, etc along with facilities for yoga, weightlifting, wrestling and kabaddi. Lectures on different areas of physical education, training and coaching facilities for various games and sports are also initiated by the College. Academics and sports are the two sides of the same coin. But the concept of education has changed drastically over a period where more focus is given on holistic development of students. As an academic college, Our College ensures that the students are being actively involved in sports to balance among the mind, body, and soul.

DPI Sports Resolution dated 20/12/19

The Inter College State Sports and Games Championship, 2019-20, at the district level will be hosted and thus organized by THLH Mahavidyalay. A meeting was held on 20th December 2019 at 12:30 pm in the meeting room of the Principal's Chamber of THLH Mahavidyalay in the presence of the following members:

1. The working Chairperson of the event and Principal from the hosting college, THLH Mahavidyalay.
2. The Vice Chairperson of the event from THLH Mahavidyalay.
3. The Sports covener and Conveners of various Sub Committees from the hosting college for this Sports event.
4. The respective representatives of the participating Colleges.
5. The DPI nominated observer and the DSA Representative

The following Resolutions were adopted in the above mentioned meeting:

1. The Inter College State Sports and Games championship, 2019-20 at the district level will be held on 27/01/20 and 28/01/20.
2. The first day of the event will commence with a very brief inaugural programme and follow with the Athletic meet.
3. The second day of the programme will continue with the Football and Kho Kho events.
3. There will be strong and active sub committees from the organizing college to play their respective parts.
4. The last date for receiving application for participation from candidates willing to participate from district colleges will be 10th of January 2020.

The date for publication of Fixture for Football and Kho Kho will be 11th January 2020.

5. All Rules and Regulations to be adopted by the organizing college will be similar to that of the Clauses as provided in 'Rules and Regulations of Athletics, Football and Kho Kho for Inter College State Sports and Games Championship, 2019-20'.

6. There will be an Eligibility Verification Committee to verify the eligibility of the participants regarding age, affiliation of willing participants from all colleges and collect the documents required for participation as well.

All the rules, regulations and basic guidelines for eligibility according to the AIU CRITERIA 2017-18/2018-19 have to be strictly followed and maintained by all participants.

7. The participants in need of accommodation facilities will be provided with it by the hosting college.

Report of the Online Spring Festival Celebration of Suri Vidyasagar College

Date: 28th March, 2021

Venue: Online Platform (Google Meet: <https://meet.google.com/pwm-edvv-nfr>)

Organized by: Social & Cultural Committee in collaboration with IQAC, Suri Vidyasagar College

Introduction:

The Cultural Committee of Suri Vidyasagar College organized a vibrant and engaging online Spring Festival celebration on 28th March, 2021 from 7:30 p.m., bringing together students, faculty, and staff in a virtual setting. A total 126 persons were joined on that event. The event was marked by various cultural performances, including songs, recitations, and speeches, reflecting the spirit of the season and the cultural heritage of the region.

Event Overview:

The festival commenced with an inaugural speech by the Principal Dr. Tapan Kumar Parichha, who welcomed all the participants and attendees. He emphasized the importance of celebrating cultural events, even in challenging times, to maintain a sense of community and joy among students and staff.

Performances:

1. Songs:

- The musical segment was one of the highlights of the event. Students performed a variety of songs, ranging from classical to contemporary, celebrating the essence of spring. The performances were soulful and beautifully captured the theme of renewal and rejuvenation associated with the season.
- A notable performance was a rendition of Rabindranath Tagore's "Esho, Hey Basanta," which resonated deeply with the audience. The melodious tunes and heartfelt lyrics set a joyous tone for the festival.

2. Recitations:

- The recitation segment featured poems that celebrated the beauty of nature and the spirit of spring. Students recited works from renowned poets like Rabindranath Tagore, Kazi Nazrul Islam, and Jibanananda Das. Each recitation was delivered with passion, reflecting the cultural richness of Bengali literature.
- One of the standout recitations was "Banalata Sen" by Jibanananda Das, which captivated the audience with its evocative imagery and deep emotional resonance.

Speeches:

- The speech segment provided an opportunity for students to express their thoughts on the significance of spring in various cultural and literary contexts. The speeches were insightful and well-articulated, highlighting the connections between the season of spring and themes like rebirth, growth, and hope.

- A speech titled "The Symbolism of Spring in Bengali Literature" explored how spring has been a recurring motif in Bengali poetry and prose, symbolizing new beginnings and the cyclical nature of life.

Conclusion:

The online Spring Festival celebration at Suri Vidyasagar College was a resounding success. Despite the virtual format, the event managed to create a lively and interactive atmosphere, allowing participants to showcase their talents and celebrate the arrival of spring. The performances were a testament to the creativity and cultural engagement of the students, making the festival a memorable occasion for all involved.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks from the Convener of Social & Cultural Committee Dr. Anurban Paul, acknowledging the efforts of all participants and the enthusiastic support of the audience. The online platform enabled the college community to come together and celebrate, demonstrating that cultural traditions can be upheld even in the face of challenges.
